Liz is gaining valuable experience in her current programming role and I see her in the future as a product manager. Liz needs to develop more confidence when dealing with and communicating tasks to junior members of staff, but I am sure in time she willl.

Extra-organizational Awareness	Rate 4
Employee's comment
I am aware of the Health and Safety issues of working with computers and endeavour to try and work within these boundaries. I am also aware of the fact that decisions that are made in this department can also have a knock on effect to other parts of the company and that our department is no more important than others with the organization.
Manager's comment
All the staff should be aware of the Health and Safety issues within the office and I am pleased to see that Liz is working towards this. She also takes into accooount when making her decisions the potential effect they may have on other departments.

I am an effective team member and a clear communicator and as such believe that I work with a range of members and I am able to get on with the job and with the stuff. When I am required to work late I also try to accommodate the request.

Interpersonal/Sales
Employee's comment
I have good interpersonal skills, I can communicate effectively with my colleagues and clients, and feel that I manage the relationships well.
Manager's comment
Liz does have good interpersonal skills when dealing with her peers, but she does lack confidence when she has delegate tasks to her juniors. If Liz to be a product manager she is going to have overcome this problem and delegate and supervise her subordinates.

I would like to expand my skill set through further training.
Manager's comment
Liz has a good foundation of knowledge which we need to build on. Her skill set is particularly strong in programming and we need to develop further management skills. I suggest that she attends a management course in the near future.

Employee's comment
On the whole I feel that I manage my time and resources well, I sometimes feel it is difficult to delegate work to junior members of staff, but feel that I keep myself on target to a job done.
Manager's comment
Liz plans and organizes her time well, she is able to put together and implement an action plan but I agree with her observation about delegation. If she is to move in this company this needs to be addressed, the first step would be to attend a training course followed by on the job training, which I am sure in time will prove invaluable
